*or for free, depending on how stupid you are Slinky is a youthful twelve years old and loves nothing better than sleeping, eating, puking, pissing and shitting all over the house. He has a very delicate stomach. Oh, and he has the most endearing range of truly excruciating noises that he likes to make while standing on your chest peering lovingly into your face at the break of dawn. You will never need to use your alarm clock again. I can't remember the last time he has let me sleep past 6am. Slinky is very territorial and doesn't like to share his home with other cats, but he will settle down once he has drenched every item in your home with piss, and that includes you. Slinky will be sold as seen. Unfortunately we are unable to give refunds or to offer a replacement if he should prove faulty in any way In fact we will be moving house shortly..
